

CHARLES A. STONE

Career Objective A position as a television Engineer or Technician, specializing in NTSC systems, maintenance, and operation.

Experience August 2001 to present Good Guys! Fairfield, CA
July 1999 to August 2001 Circuit City Fairfield, CA

Sales / Warehouse / Customer Service Associate

- Asked questions to ascertain customer's needs and recommended the equipment that best suited those needs.
- Used computer to track inventory.
- Warehouse maintenance including moving heavy equipment (i.e. TVs).
- Quickly built rapport and trust to gain people as long term customers

July 1995 to Pizza Hut Honolulu, HI
September 1998 Seabreeze Resaurant Honolulu, HI

Cook, Driver / Host, Busboy

- Gained the ability of teamwork in a fast paced and high stress environment.

Summers of 1992, 1993, 1994 Pioneer Inc. Rushville, IN

Seasonal Field Worker

- Learned to appreciate hard work at an early age. (13,14, and 15 years old)

Education July 2001 to June 2004 Napa Valley College Napa, CA

- Associate in Science Degree, Telecommunication Technology
- Dean's List with an accumulative 3.66 GPA
- Completed 2 levels of AutoCad with certification
- Microprocessor programming
- Traced signal flow through schematics
- Betacam Alignment
- Vector Scope
- Spectrum Analyzer
- VTR Repair
- Monochrome/Color Monitors
- Encoders
- Sony/Ikegami Cameras
- Sync/Test Generators
- Voice/Data Transmission
- Soldering
- Waveform Monitors
- Lighting & Production
- Grass Valley Switchers

Interests Reading, travel, a desire for knowledge

Professional Societies S.M.P.T.E. student member Chapter 11, Napa Valley College

S.B.E. certified and member.... pending graduation in June 2004