

Faye M. Pilgrim

Objective: To obtain an engineering position, which offers the opportunity to utilize my maintenance, operations, and systems design skills.

Education:

2000 to 2003 A.S. Telecommunications Technology, Napa Valley College, Napa, CA.*
Electronics Technology
CATV Technology

1994 to 1995 Certificate in Electronics, Island Drafting Tech. Institute, Amityville, NY.

Qualifications:

- Able to troubleshoot and repair professional broadcast video equipment including but not limited to Cameras, VTR's, Monitors and Switchers.
- Proficient in the alignment of Sony cameras (BVP-300, 330) and VTR's (DVR-10, BVW-65, 75, BVU-800, 950, 9850).
- Ability to troubleshoot to component level using test equipment such as Oscilloscopes, Multimeters, Waveform Monitors and Spectrum Analyzers.
- Working knowledge of Windows, DOS based systems, MAC platforms, TCP/IP Networking, and AutoCAD for the professional levels I & II.
- Reliable, responsible, dependable, and flexible.
- Posses current passport, ready and willing to travel and/or relocate.

Employment:

2001 to pres. KTLN TV, Corte Madera, CA.
Master Control Operator
Responsibilities include, but not limited to, recording, editing, and QC of daily programming.

1999 to 2000 Volt Services Group, San Jose, CA.
On-site Coordinator/Reception
Responsibilities included employment tracking, database maintenance and temporary relief for Corporate Operators and Receptionists.

1996 to 1998 ABC TV, New York, NY.
Assistant Technician
Responsibilities included maintenance/repair of television video equipment and, 24/7 on call support for Master Control, Graphic areas, and Control Rooms.

Affiliations: SMPTE, Chapter 11 Secretary, 2001 to 2003
SBE, Certified Broadcast Technologist *

References: David Kramer, Video Eng., Matchframe, Burbank, CA. 818.840.6800
Ronny Hinds, Video Eng., ABC TV, New York, NY. 800.221.7386
Charles Wilson, Prod. Mgr., KTLN/GGP, Corte Madera, CA. 415.456.7500

* Pending May, 2003