

Ralph R. Brown

180 Monterey Road
barcode27@hotmail.com

Monterey, CA 93955
(hm) 831-394-2041

Objective: To apply my training and work experience to a job in Broadcasting.

- SUMMARY:
- Six years of technical experience in the Air Force working on security and surveillance technology.
  - Two years of technical training at Napa Valley College as part of their Broadcast Technology program.
  - AS degree in Electronic Principle Technology from the Community College of the Air Force.
  - AS degree in Broadcast Television Technology from Napa Valley College.
  - Certified Broadcast Technologist from the Society of Broadcast Engineers (SBE)

EDUCATION:

- May 2005: Applied Science Degree in Electronic Principle Technology
  - Community College of the Air Force
- May 2007: Associates Degree in Broadcast Television Technology
  - Napa Valley College, Napa, California

Course Instruction Included:

Audio Board Installation/Operation	Analog/Digital Video Theory
Camera/CRT Theory	Camera/CRT Calibration
Compression Theory	Microphone Theory/Installation
Intercom Installation/Operation	Digital Logic/Gate Theory

June 2007: Certified Broadcast Technologist from the Society of Broadcast Engineers (SBE)

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- 1999 – 2005: Military Service in the Air Force
  - Career Field: Visual Imagery and Intrusion Detection Systems

Duties Included:

Installing, performing operational checks, inspecting, troubleshooting, repairing, overhauling, calibrating, modifying, testing, and analyzing the performance of complex military security and surveillance systems.

These were classified systems that contained all the same technical elements of a sophisticated broadcast system.